

SPN DATA PROTECTION

Responsible for data collection: Sociedade Portuguesa de Neurociências (SPN).

- Personal Data collected: Name, Academic title, Institution, VAT number, Address, Telephone, Mobile phone, e-mail, 2 scientific publications.

- SPN guarantees that all personal information registered will be treated in accordance with the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) and relevant National Laws. At no time will the collected data be used for any purpose other than that for which they were collected. SPN does not disclose or transfer its database to third parties.

- SPN guarantees the data subjects have the right to access, rectify, eliminate, restrict, or oppose to the processing of their personal data, as well as the right to its portability.

- The member undertakes to provide SPN with true and complete information and must inform SPN of any updates to the data provided.

- The data subject has the right to withdraw his/her consent at any time by sending an email to secretariado@spn.org.pt

- The data collected are required for the registration of associates and for the management of the SPN's activity, namely the occasional disclosure of activities promoted or supported by the SPN.